Nemetschek Group Announced as One of The 50 Sustainability & Climate Leaders

The solutions that are building a greener future

Munich, December 8, 2020 – The Nemetschek Group, a global provider of software for the construction industry, is one of the 50 Sustainability & Climate Leaders. As part of the global campaign starting today, the Nemetschek Group showcases the impact of digital solutions for a more sustainable built world. The 50 companies and businesses invited are creating blueprints for a green and sustainable future.

Climate change is the defining issue of our time. The 50 Sustainability

Climate Leaders project by TBD Media is the response from the International Business Community demonstrating the desire, the leadership, and the will to take effective action in the fight against Climate Change. With businesses aligned to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, the hosts of the campaign, TBD Media, aim to inspire other businesses, corporations and their leaders and discover new ways of operating and spearheading a positive impact. Amongst some of the largest and most powerful companies worldwide, the Nemetschek Group has been invited to participate in the project to represent the building industry.

“The construction industry is lagging behind in terms of efficiency and productivity, but there are ways to change this to realize a more sustainable built world,” says Dr Axel Kaufmann, Spokesman of the Executive Board and CFOO at the Nemetschek Group. “We are honored to show - as one of the 50 Sustainability & Climate Leaders - how digital solutions can significantly increase efficiency and thus sustainability in the construction industry”.

The Nemetschek approach: Offering state-of-the-art software solutions that increase efficiency, productivity and sustainability along the entire construction lifecycle, from design to build to manage.
