Nemetschek Group debuts with first globally underwritten syndicated loan

- Syndicated loan of EUR 500 million concluded
- Important milestone for future growth strategy

Munich, April 25, 2024 - The Nemetschek Group (ISIN DE 0006452907), a global provider of software solutions for the construction and media industry, has replaced its existing bilateral credit lines from 2020 with a new syndicated loan.

The syndicated loan has a volume of EUR 500 million and was granted - following strong interest - from both long-standing house banks and new international banking partners.

Led by Bayerische Landesbank and UniCredit, the consortium includes BNP Paribas, Citibank, Commerzbank, DZ BANK, HSBC and JPMorgan.

"This significant milestone further strengthens our already very solid financial position and supports us in driving our growth strategy forward as planned," says Louise Öfverström, CFO of the Nemetschek Group. "The favorable transaction parameters as well as the very broad support from leading and international financial institutions is proof of their high confidence in the operational and financial strength, our positioning as well as the long-term growth prospects of the Nemetschek Group."
