Solibri signs Enterprise Agreement with Peab to define construction quality and processes in building projects

Helsinki, Finland, 29.03.2021: This long term agreement guarantees unlimited access to Solibri Office when and wherever needed – meaning high quality data is available and accessible to deliver construction projects on time, on quality and with minimal waste. The agreement was signed as part of Peab's long term mission to deliver its clients high quality and cost effective builds with maximum impact on environmental savings.

Tomas Shisha, Peab's Project leader states "Today we are very proud to again show our customers and industry that we are leading with innovative workflow solutions that save time, money and also the environment. My team has the responsibility to harmonise processes and software solutions for our company. By choosing Solibri Enterprise, we are improving the existing ways of working for all our staff".

Ville Kyytsönen, Solibri CEO replies "The Nordic region is a key business area for us and I am happy to expand our working relationship with Peab. It's a pleasure to work with customers that have similar values and want to see construction done properly. Peab understands that to deliver 'true' BIM, you need the most advanced tools on the market. Good enough for most is not good enough for the best".

Solibri looks forward to helping to innovate and drive the best possible workflow for Peab.
