Vectorworks, Inc. Announces 2022 Virtual Open House on April 13

Columbia, MD (March 9, 2022) – Global design and BIM software provider Vectorworks, Inc. will once again open its doors (virtually) to the Vectorworks community on Wednesday, April 13, 2022. The event will allow users in the architecture, landscape architecture, and entertainment design industries to connect face-to-face with the Vectorworks team in a fun, casual setting, all from the comfort of their own homes or offices. This completely free event will also provide the opportunity for designers to ask questions and learn more about Vectorworks' latest features, updates, and design topic areas directly from the minds behind the software.

“We are constantly inspired by our users and the platform of this unique event is the perfect opportunity to interact with and gain valuable insight from the Vectorworks community,” said Steve Johnson, chief technology officer at Vectorworks. “Our team looks forward to meeting with customers from across all industries to discuss a variety of topics, provide details on our latest features, answer questions and give helpful tips.”

Event attendees will be able to connect with engineers, product experts and the Vectorworks leadership team over Zoom to discuss various key topics including:

- Software for Education
- Architecture, Interiors & BIM
- Cloud & Mobile
- Entertainment
- Landscapes, BIM & GIS
- Vectorworks' Product Roadmap
- Rendering
- Vectorworks University & Certifications
- 3D Modeling

This year's event will take place from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. AEDT and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. EST. Attendees from around the world can join at any time during the event's duration for their convenience. Prospective attendees can secure their spots by visiting the registration page.

Press interested in attending should contact the Vectorworks PR team at pr@vectorworks.net for more information, to request a demo or to schedule a press interview with executives or industry experts.
